H.B. McClure Company's Chief Financial Officer Wins 2013 CFO of the Year Award

HARRISBURG, PA (June 4, 2013) – H.B. McClure Company is proud to announce that its Chief Financial Officer, Andrew F. Henry Jr., was selected as CFO of the Year, Medium/Large Private Company category, in the Central Penn Business Journal's 2013 CFO of the Year Awards. Andrew received his award on Thursday, May 30, 2013, with more than 400 guests at York College of Pennsylvania.

Andrew, one of seven nominees in the category, was selected in part because of the guidance he provided H.B. McClure during its transition from private, family-based ownership to an ESOP as well as his strategic contributions leading to 10%+ annual growth.

“This is a huge honor for Andy, who truly deserved this level of recognition,” said Robert Whalen, president. “Andy’s contributions to H.B. McClure include more than sound, strategic financial guidance. He is a valued team member who also contributes to his community.”

Andrew Henry joined H.B. McClure Company in 1983. H.B. McClure Company is one of central Pennsylvania’s leading mechanical contractors for both residential and commercial applications. Founded in 1914, the company has over 200 employees and provides heating, cooling, plumbing, electrical, preventive maintenance, fuel oil, propane, home comfort, and green energy solutions to thousands of homeowners and businesses throughout the mid-state.
