H.B. McClure Promotes Three Team Members to Senior Management Team
Promotions Reflect Tangible Contributions of Key Team Members, Signal Growth

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 10, 2013 – H.B. McClure Company, Central Pennsylvania’s oldest and most diverse commercial and residential mechanical contractor, promoted three long-term team members to its senior management team. The promotions recognize their contributions to H.B. McClure’s growth through strategic decision making and focus on the customer experience.

Eric Crawford is promoted to Vice President, Residential. Eric started at H.B. McClure in 1988 shortly after graduation. He now manages the company’s second largest operating department in terms of revenue and employees. Eric is charged with combining the Consumer Department and Residential Service Departments into a single group; focusing on consistently delivering superior customer service for repair calls and system replacements.

Korey Kann is promoted to Vice President, Commercial Service. Korey has been the de facto leader of the Commercial Service Department for many years and has an unmatched track record of department growth and client satisfaction. Korey started his career at H.B. McClure in 1988 soon after his high school graduation. Korey’s promotion is recognition of the Department’s growth under his strategic guidance.

Kyle Seaman is promoted to Controller. Kyle, who joined H.B. McClure in 1996, will play a lead role in financial and business analysis, as well as managing the day-to-day financial duties. Kyle is also being recognized for his strategic decision-making skills resulting in the adoption of new operating systems that will improve the customer experience while streamlining operations.

“We realize that our success as a company, and our ability to provide unmatched customer service, is directly related to the caliber of employees,” said Robert F. Whalen, President. “Eric, Korey, and Kyle are valued team members who directly contribute to the company’s success and the customer experience. These promotions do more than recognize a job well done. They indicate our collective belief that these are the right team members to help guide H.B. McClure into the next 100 years.”

H.B. McClure provides heating/cooling installation and service, plumbing service, duct cleaning, propane and oil delivery, and more to homeowners and businesses throughout Central PA including, but not limited to Camp Hill, Carlisle, Dillsburg, Enola, Harrisburg, Hershey, Hummelstown, Mechanicsburg, Middletown, New Cumberland, and York.
